Commissary Rules

1. You must have a Photo ID to receive your commissary, and you must come down with your own bag to put your commissary in.
2. All items must fit in one bag
3. All inmates can check their commissary bags at the designated tables to ensure their commissary receipts and items are correct. If you walk away from the table without consulting commissary staff, no action will be taken to correct the situation.
4. Send Commissary bags down to laundry in bins if you have any.
5. All sales are final.
6. No exchanges or refunds.
7. No substitutions will be made at any time, for anything.
8. Prices are subject to change without notice.
9. Orders will be filled from left to right as funds allow.
10. The institutional laundry will not be responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged clothing purchased from the commissary.
11. Commissary Restriction (CR) items are Stamps, OTCs, (CR) Hygiene items, religious items and the specified legal items indicated as (CR).
12. The limit on purchase amount is also the amount you are authorized to have in your possession. You are not authorized to have more than this limit in your possession at any time, unless otherwise note, such as in the MEATS SECTION. If you are found to have more commissary than the stated limits your items are subject to confiscation. It will be your responsibility to mail the items home or have them destroyed by institution staff.
13. Any warranty offered on items is that of the manufacturer, not the commissary.
14. Holiday items are only available while supplies last.
15. All information must be filled out accurately and completely including the right cell number, failure to do so may result in no commissary issue
16. It is your responsibility to ensure you don't purchase more items than can reasonably fit in your locker. Excess commissary will be considered contraband may be confiscated
17. Turn in your slips the night prior to your shopping day by 9:00pm

Commissary Rules

1. You must have a Photo ID to receive your commissary, and you must come down with your own bag to put your commissary in.
2. All items must fit in one bag.
3. All inmates can check their commissary bags at the designated tables to ensure their commissary receipts and items are correct. If you walk away from the table without consulting commissary staff, no action will be taken to correct the situation.
4. Send Commissary bags down to laundry in bins if you have any.
5. All sales are final.
6. No exchanges or refunds.
7. No substitutions will be made at any time, for anything.
8. Prices are subject to change without notice.
9. Orders will be filled from left to right as funds allow.
10. The institutional laundry will not be responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged clothing purchased from the commissary.
11. Commissary Restriction (CR) items are Stamps, OTCs, (CR) Hygiene items, religious items and the specified legal items indicated as (CR).
12. The limit on purchase amount is also the amount you are authorized to have in your possession. You are not authorized to have more than this limit in your possession at any time, unless otherwise note, such as in the MEATS SECTION. If you are found to have more commissary than the stated limits your items are subject to confiscation. It will be your responsibility to mail the items home or have them destroyed by institution staff.
13. Any warranty offered on items is that of the manufacturer, not the commissary.
14. Holiday items are only available while supplies last.
15. All information must be filled out accurately and complete including the right cell number, failure to do so may result in no commissary issue.
16. It is your responsibility to ensure you don't purchase more items than can reasonably fit in your locker. Excess commissary will be considered contraband may be confiscated.
17. Turn in your slips the night prior to your shopping day by 9:00pm
